August Commentary

Your Fund (O Acc GBP) returned +1.5% during the month.

August is often a month of light liquidity and thin markets, in which shocks are disproportionately magnified. Last month passed uneventfully. Will autumn be the season of mists and mellow fruitfulness for investors?

Markets are certainly sending mixed messages. There are plenty of signs of excess, even a 2021 redux with an unwelcome return of 'meme' stocks and crypto combined with ongoing AI-related excitement. Hyperscalers<sup>1</sup> capital investment (~$300bn combined this year) in AI may pay off, but there must be some risk of malinvestment. This is a known unknown.

Meanwhile longer-dated bond yields across the G7 countries are rising, with the UK one of the most impacted. 30-year gilt yields have risen to over 5.6%, their highest levels since 1998. The rise in yields since 2020 has been breathtaking.

We have also witnessed rising political interference in the Federal Reserve, which investors are beginning to take note of. Lower short-term interest rates and higher inflation are the likely outcomes. It is little surprise gold continues to shine amid the uncertainty.

We have continued to keep our bond and index linked duration very short. Low interest rates hid many sins, as the low cost of debt sheltered governments from ever-rising debt levels. Those days are over. Whether equity markets, at close to record high valuations, can ignore weaker bond markets remains to be seen.

<sup>1</sup> Hyperscalers are large cloud service providers, which can provide services such as computing and storage at enterprise scale.

Important Information

Please refer to Troy's Glossary of Investment terms here. Fund performance data provided is calculated net of fees with income reinvested unless stated otherwise. All performance and income data is in relation to the stated share class, performance of other share classes may differ. Past performance is not a guide to future performance. Overseas investments may be affected by movements in currency exchange rates. The value of an investment and any income from it may fall as well as rise and investors may get back less than they invested. The historic dividend yield reflects distributions declared over the past twelve months as a percentage of the fund's price, as at the date shown. The yield is not guaranteed and will fluctuate. It does not include any preliminary charge and investors may be subject to tax on their distributions. The UK Retail Prices Index (RPI) is a target benchmark for the fund as the Fund aims to achieve a return (the money made or lost on an investment) that is above the rate of inflation, reference to other benchmarks are for comparative purposes only. Tax legislation and the levels of relief from taxation can change at any time. Any change in the tax status of a Fund or in tax legislation could affect the value of the investments held by the Fund or its ability to provide returns to its investors. The tax treatment of an investment, and any dividends received, will depend on the individual circumstances of the investor and may be subject to change in the future. There is no guarantee that the objective of the investments will be met. The Fund may use currency forward derivatives for the purpose of efficient portfolio management. The UK RPI figures shown are a combination of the actual rate of RPI, as calculated by the Office of National Statistics, and estimates for the previous month. This is a marketing communication. Information on the risks of an investment in the fund can be found in the Prospectus.
