

Orion Resource Equities Fund | January 2026

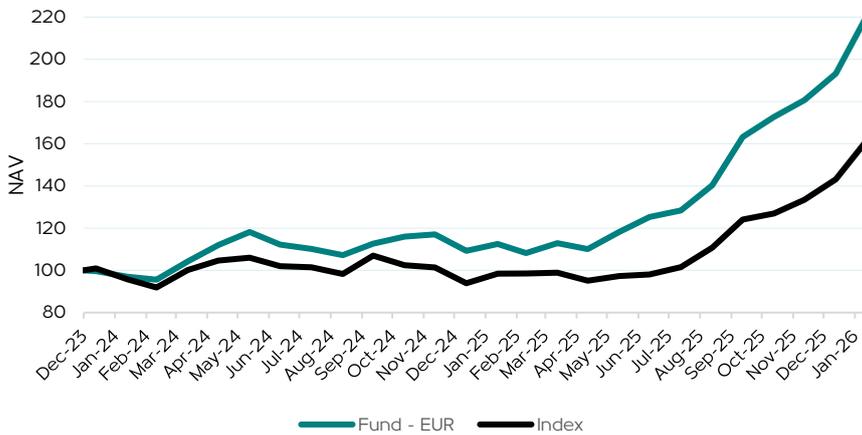

This is a marketing communication. Investors should read the KIID/PRIPs document and prospectus prior to investing and should refer to the prospectus for the fund's full list of risks.

Fund Objective

The investment objective of the Sub-Fund is to achieve the best possible returns from a globally diversified portfolio of investments for a level of risk (as measured by volatility) broadly similar to its benchmark index (MSCI ACWI Metals and Mining Net Total Return Euros) (the "Index").

CUMULATIVE PERFORMANCE

	1M	3M	YTD	1Y	Since Inception*
Fund - EUR	14.33	27.85	14.33	96.24	120.87
Index	13.01	27.43	13.01	64.28	61.77

MONTHLY REVIEW

The Fund gained +14.33% in January, compared to its Index return of +13.01%. Since inception, the Fund has returned +120.87%, surpassing the Index return of 61.77%.

One of the Fund's largest gainers was Paladin Energy. This investment is a good case study of how we seek to add real and sustainable alpha to the portfolio over the long term. By leveraging the wealth of knowledge across the wider Orion group, we believe we are better positioned to assess the likely success of a project build, as well as the timing and magnitude of the subsequent free cash flow inflection point. We have worked diligently on this opportunity for over a year and were delighted to receive early confirmation of our thesis that the initial build would go well in the recent results. There is still work to do and we will visit the site next week to assess progress further.

One of the worst performers was Valterra Platinum. Valterra owns what we believe to be the world's best PGM mine (if we assume the Polar division is a nickel mine with great PGM credits) and has a good operational track record which is indicative of its high-quality management. The equity was caught up in the frenzied sell-off on January 30th but has subsequently recovered over half those losses. We expect further gains in the coming months.

Key Risks

Concentration Risk: When the Fund focuses its investments in a particular way, the issues affecting the investments will have a greater effect than if the Fund was more diversified. This concentration may also limit the Fund's liquidity.

Currency Risk: When the Fund invests in assets denominated in a different currency, a devaluation of the asset's currency relative to the currency of the Fund will lead to a reduction in the value of the Fund.

Emerging Market Risk: The Fund invests in securities issued by companies in emerging markets. Political, market, social, regulatory and/or economic instabilities in emerging market countries may reduce the value of the Fund's investments.

Equity and Equity related securities Risk: The market prices of equity and equity related securities may go up or down, sometimes rapidly or unpredictably. The value of these securities may decline for reasons that directly relate to the issuer and/or due to general industry or market, such as real or perceived adverse economic conditions, changes in the general outlook for corporate earnings, changes in interest or currency rates, or adverse investor sentiment generally. Equity markets tend to move in cycles, which may cause stock prices to fall over short or extended periods of time.

Index Tracking Risk: The Fund's performance may not exactly track the Index. This can result from market fluctuations, changes in the composition of the Index, transaction costs, the costs of making changes to the Fund's portfolio and other Fund expenses.

Management Risk: The Fund is actively managed. This means its performance will depend to a large degree on the investment decisions made by the Investment Manager. These decisions may not always provide the desired results and may reduce the value of the Fund.

Small Cap Risk: Small companies' securities may fluctuate more sharply than securities of larger companies and may be more vulnerable to adverse developments than larger companies. Investments in small companies may involve certain special risks such as limited liquidity, limited availability of information, limited prior operating history and key employee risk.

For a detailed description of risks, please refer to the Fund's prospectus and UCITS and PRIIPs KIIDs/KIDs, available at <https://funds.carnegroup.com/OrionResourcePartnersICAV>.
