

Fact Sheet

Morgan Stanley Alpha Tracker UCITS Fund

This is a marketing communication. Applications for shares in the Fund should not be made without first consulting the current Prospectus and the Key Investor Information Document ("KIID"), which are available in English and in the official language of your local jurisdiction at www.fundlogic.morganstanley.com or free of charge from the registered office of Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc ("Morgan Stanley"), 25 Cabot Square, Canary Wharf, London E14 4QA, United Kingdom. A summary of investor rights is available in English at the same website.

If the board of directors of the Company and/or Morgan Stanley decide to terminate the arrangement for marketing that Fund in any EEA country where it is registered for sale, they will do so in accordance with the relevant UCITS rules.

Investment in the Fund concerns the acquisition of shares in the Fund and not in a given underlying asset such as building or shares of a company, as these are only the underlying assets owned by the Fund.

Investment Objective & Policy

The Morgan Stanley Alpha Tracker UCITS Fund (the "Fund") seeks to provide shareholders with the performance of the Morgan Stanley Alpha Tracker Index™ (the "Index"). The Index offers a liquid and transparent alternative investment strategy which aims to deliver the return and risk profile of a broad-based universe of hedge fund styles.

Investment Process

The Fund uses a passive process to track the performance of the Index. In this regard, the Fund invests in a basket of transferable securities (the "Funding Assets") and uses derivatives such as total return swaps to achieve its investment objective. The use of these derivatives allows the Fund to exchange the performance of the Funding Assets for the performance of the Index. See Fund Implementation section for more information.

About the Index

The Index is designed to deliver exposure that approximates the return profile of a broad-based universe of hedge fund investment styles, by investing in a broad range of traditional assets and quantitative investment strategy indices. The hedge fund styles that the Index aims to track are -Equity Hedge Style, Macro Style, Event Driven and Relative Value Style.

The components of the Index are financial indices (sponsored by Morgan Stanley or other parties), ETFs and commodity derivatives including FDI which in each case provide exposure to either a systematic investment strategy described above or a broad market exposure to an asset class (equities, fixed income, foreign exchange and commodities)

Fund Implementation

- Share purchase: Investor buys shares in the Fund for cash
- Purchase of a selection of Funding Assets: Fund invests the cash proceeds in a basket of Funding Assets, in a manner that is compliant with UCITS diversification and concentration rules. These are held in a segregated account with the sub-custodian.
- Financing Swap: Fund enters into a performance swap in order to swap out the performance of the Funding Assets for a rate of financing.
- Performance Swap - Index exposure: The Fund swaps out the rate of financing for the total return of the Morgan Stanley Alpha Tracker Index.

Key Features and Risks

Key Features:

- Daily Liquidity.
- Exposure to Index that approximates the return profile of a broad-based universe of hedge fund investment styles
- Passively managed

Risks:

- No capital protection: investors may lose their entire investment in the Fund.
- The Fund is exposed to market, liquidity and operational risks.
- The Fund may have significant exposure to emerging markets and sub investment grade fixed income instruments through the exposure to the Index.
- The use of derivative instruments is central to the investment policy of the Fund. The ability of the Fund to meet its objective is dependent on the ability of the counterparty to meet its obligations. In the event of counterparty default, the Fund will be exposed to the economic value and
