ESG Investment Strategy Summary

The fund employs a comprehensive ESG integration strategy, blending financial objectives with environmental and social responsibility. We commit to a minimum proportion of sustainable investments, as defined by SFDR, using our proprietary methodology aligned with UN SDGs and EU Taxonomy objectives. Our approach includes rigorous screening and exclusion policies, particularly focusing on companies involved in fossil fuel-related activities through our Paris-Aligned Fossil Fuel Policy. We exclude companies engaged in controversial activities or those with significant negative environmental impacts. Good governance practices are thoroughly assessed throughout our investment process.

Risk & Reward Profile (RRP)

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. We have classified this Fund as 5 out of 7, which is a medium-high risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-high level, and poor market conditions will likely impact the Fund's capacity to pay you. Be aware of currency risk. In some circumstances you will receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above. For more information on risks the fund is exposed to, please refer to the section "Risk Descriptions" of the prospectus. Other risks materially relevant to the PRIIP not included in the summary risk indicator:

Concentration risk: To the extent that the fund invests a large portion of its assets in a limited number of industries, sectors, or issuers, or within a limited geographical area, it can be more risky than a fund that invests more broadly.

Derivatives risk: Small movements in the value of an underlying asset can create large changes in the value of a derivative, making derivatives highly volatile in general, and exposing the fund to potential losses significantly greater than the cost of the derivative.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

Glossary / Definition of Terms

Absolute contribution

Total contribution of a security or fund achieved over a specific period, it is not measured relative to a benchmark.

Alpha

The risk-adjusted excess return relative to the benchmark, resulting from portfolio active management. It reflects the portion of the excess return that is not explained by systemic risk.

Beta

A measurement of the volatility of returns relative to the overall market beta equal to one. A security with beta higher (lower) than one has greater (lower) risk relative to the broad market.

Commitment

Represented by the sum of notional, or the sum of the commitments of individual derivatives after netting and hedging.

Correlation

The degree to which two variables move together. The metric assumes values between -1 and 1. A positive (negative) correlation means that variables move in the same (opposite) direction(s). If there is no relationship between each other, the correlation will be close to zero.

Dividend Yield

Annual dividends per share divided by share price.

Forward Earning Per Share

Net earnings (12M forward) available to common shareholders divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding.

Forward Price to Earning Ratio

The ratio of share price to forecasted 12M earnings per share.

Fund VaR

The probability-based estimate of the minimum loss over a period of time (horizon), given a certain confidence level, presented as percentage of the assets under management of the fund.

Information ratio EOD

A measure of risk-adjusted return that is defined as the excess annual return of the portfolio over its benchmark (active return) relative to the variability of that excess return (tracking error). It is used to assess the added value of the active management. Information Ratio is calculated using end-of-day (EOD) portfolio pricing, which eliminates timing discrepancies between the fund and benchmark valuations, providing a more precise measurement of the risk profile of the portfolio's holdings. EOD information ratio is calculated at portfolio level, gross of fees and in the base currency of the portfolio.

Market Capitalisation

Total value of all company's outstanding shares at the current market price.

Maximum Drawdown

The largest loss measured from peak to trough until a new peak is attained. Note it only measures the size of the largest loss, without taking into consideration the frequency of large losses.

NAV

Net Asset Value, the total value of a fund's assets less its liabilities.

Ongoing charges

It is an estimate of the charges that excludes performance related fees and transaction costs including third party brokerage fees and bank charges on securities transactions.

Physical instruments

An item of economic, commercial or exchange value that has a material existence.

Price to book Ratio

A valuation ratio calculated as price per share divided by book value per share.

SFDR

Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation, a European legislation which applies to products manufactured in the EU.

Tracking error EOD

The volatility of the difference between the returns of an investment and its benchmark. The lower the number, the closer the portfolio's historic performance has followed the benchmark performance. Tracking error is calculated using end-of-day (EOD) portfolio pricing, which eliminates timing discrepancies between the fund and benchmark valuations, providing a more precise measurement of the risk profile of the portfolio's holdings. EOD tracking error is calculated at portfolio level, gross of fees and in the base currency of the portfolio.

Volatility

A statistical measure of the fluctuations of a security's price. It can also be used to describe fluctuations in a particular market. High volatility is an indication of higher risk.
